University of South Alabama (USA)
Extend Approval of All Programs
April 8, 2021

This resolution is the result of a comprehensive review. The Council for the Accreditation of Education Preparation (CAEP) recently granted full accreditation to USA's College of Education and Professional Studies. Each program has also earned a recommendation for approval for seven years. Reports for programs that were reviewed under Alabama's process for Continuous Improvement in Educator Preparation (CIEP) are part of this resolution. USA is the first institution to achieve the distinction of attaining recommendations for approval for seven years for all programs reviewed under the CIEP process. The Class B and Alternative Class A Choral Music and Instrumental Music programs and the Class A School Counseling programs are nationally recognized by their professional organizations.
